What We Are Looking For .....

Bangladesh offers generous opportunities for investment under its liberalized Industrial Policy and export-oriented, private sector-led growth strategy.

The burgeoning domestic market and the prospect of significant cost reductions for companies sourcing components and finished goods for international markets make Bangladesh a compelling choice for investors.

In last 17 years, Bridge Chemie has gained significant strength in the industrial business field and considering above the company is in a competent and confident position to undertake the responsibility to set up technology and knowledge based project to fulfill the domestic and international demands. Therefore, Bridge Chemie is willingly to work shoulder to shoulder with the partner under a joint venture project.
